Be kind

How far can your kindness reach?

Work together to record all of your kind deeds and actions!

WEE CRITTERS
INTERACTIVE ANIMAL EDUCATION

Create a classroom kindness chain to show just how fast and how far simple acts of kindness can reach in our classes, schools, communities and in our world!

This activity not only encourages children to carry out random acts of kindness but also shows them just how far kindness can reach....and it's a great way to decorate the classroom / space!

Instructions

1. Print out the paper chain templates.
2. When a child displays an act of kindness, complete the details on a paper chain, allow them to cut it out and help them to add it to the paperchain.
3. Display your paperchain to show the children how far kindness reaches in just a short time.

Try to complete all of the random acts of kindness shown in the grid below to be part of the 'Kind kids club'.

Colour in the picture in each square when you have completed the task.

Hug a friend 	Draw a picture and give it to someone	Give someone a compliment	'Bee helpful'! Do a chore without being asked
Smile at someone	Put litter in the bin	Help your teacher	Say thank you
Hold the door	Help a grown up	Tidy your room	Write a kind note
Leave food out for the birds	Ask someone to play	Share a toy	Call a family member you haven't spoken to in a while

Kindness & gratitude journal

INTERACTIVE ANIMAL EDUCATION

Little explorers can keep a daily journal over the period of one week to see just how much kindness they have spread!

Print / photocopy the template overleaf for your little explorers. They can complete the diary on a daily basis and you can then discuss at the end of the week.
